

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Buying a subscription to satellite radio should be no different than having satellite television. I find it very enjoyable because I can listen to what I want with out someone talking to me all the time. I don't have to listen to swearing or dirty talk.